

Your Problems

Too Young to Marry?

Dear Ann: I am 18 and going with a girl 17. She's putting a lot of heat on me to get married, but I think I'm too young to accept the responsibilities of a husband. Also, her religion is different from mine.

We are both seniors in high school and I plan to go to college. I don't want to be stuck with a wife as I'd like to spend my time studying so I'll amount to something.

The girl's folks are pressuring me because of her condition, if you know what I mean. We are all steady readers of your column and think you give good advice. Please tell me if this is fair. In other words I want to know the score.—MIKE (Not my real name)

Dear Mike: Yeah, I know what you mean—and this is a fine time to be asking the score!

You have a legal obligation as well as a moral one, to support the child and pay the medical bills. No one can force you into a marriage, however.

Too bad you didn't think of all these good reasons for not wanting to get married before you got the girl in trouble. She'll pay the Big Price, but you'll be shelling out for a long time to come—unless, of course, your dad has sufficient rocks in the box to take care of his college-student son, and unmarried mother, and an out-of-wedlock grandchild. Pretty, isn't it?

Dear Ann: What can I do with a wife who lies constantly? We've been married 10 years and have three children.

I give her my entire paycheck every week and she's supposed to pay all the bills. I take a small allowance for pocket-money.

She tells me the bills are paid, then several weeks later I find them, stuck in a drawer or used as a book-mark. When I show them to her she says she got mixed up, or else pretends she never said they were paid. She lies so much I'm sure she doesn't know where the lie begins and the truth ends.

Mrs. Wolf's Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. Don Wolf was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf had dinner at the Palms and then dropped in at the Williams home for a visit only to find many friends gathered for a party. Dancing and games were enjoyed and refreshments served. The honoree received numerous birthday gifts.

At 11 o'clock the entire party joined others for dancing at the Elks Club with an early morning breakfast concluding the celebration.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Carrioco de Puente; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wolf, North Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gazeley, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Seeman, the Roberts and Wolfs.

Sunday morning brunch was enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gazeley celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Gazeley's mother, Mrs. Wolf.

Guests for the morning were Messrs. and Mmes. Danny Montgomery, Jim Wolf, Don Wolf; Mrs. Bertha F. Elliott, Mrs. Bertie Grimm and Bob Wolf.

Sunday evening the younger set spent an enjoyable evening at the Wolf home. Homemade ice cream and other refreshments were served. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Jefferys, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gazeley, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Montgomery and family, Mrs. Bertha Elliott, Mrs. Vertie Grimm and Bob Wolf.

OFF TO SAMOA

T. J. Bezich, 2413 Cabrillo Ave., will leave by plane Saturday morning for American Samoa and Tokyo on a business trip. He will be gone for approximately six weeks.

I'm losing my love for her because I can't believe a word she says. Please tell me what to do. MR. X.

Quit being a sap. Pay the bills yourself and give HER a small allowance for pocket money. This way she'll lie less because she'll have less to lie about.

A person who is unable to separate fact from fiction could be mentally ill. Urge her to see a doctor.

Dear Ann: I know I am tardy in entering the fight about TV but it has taken me several weeks to get my thoughts together. I think perhaps the shock of reading so many letters from people who admittedly eat their meals before the TV set, slowed me down.

It's frightening that so many families must rely on this regressive instrument in order to achieve 20 minutes of tranquility during the dinner period when they should be getting acquainted.

Last evening I was horrified when my wife and I were guests in the home of some fairly intelligent people. I was interrupted in the middle of a word by the hostess, who said, "Do you mind if we continue this delightful conversation later? Gunsmoke is going on in three minutes and we never miss it."

Of course the "delightful conversation" was never resumed, in fact, after that I didn't care to discuss anything. I fear, however, that those of us who hold this point of view are diminishing in number. Soon we shall be almost extinct—like the whooping crane. But I hope you'll publish this letter as one of the last gasps in support of good old-fashioned, stimulating conversation among living beings.

To learn how to keep your boy friend in line without losing him, send for ANN LANDERS' new booklet, "Necking and Petting—And How Far to Go," enclosing your request 20 cents in coin and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

(Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Herald and enclose a stamped self-addressed envelope.)

AUDRIAN ROZENDAL
... Plans Wedding
(Portrait by Seeman)

Engagement Is Announced at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Rozendal, 1803 Gramercy Ave., announced the engagement of their daughter, Audrian Jean, to Joseph R. Mihalevich at an open house at their home on May 4. Attending were the families and close friends. A pink and silver theme was used. Match book and napkins inscribed with the couples' names in pink and silver script announced the happy news.

No definite date has been set for the wedding. The bride-elect was graduated from Narbonne High School, where she was active in campus affairs. She is a member of the Job's Daughters, Lomita Bethel. Miss Rozendal attended the Lawton school for dental assistants in Beverly Hills and is employed by Drs. Harold Apfel and Robert Thompson of Torrance.

The bride-elect, a San Pedro High School graduate, class of 1955, is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

Flower, Art, Hobby Show Set May 16-17

Working with enthusiasm to make the annual Flower, Art, and Hobby Show on May 16, 17, 18 at the Civic Auditorium an outstanding success are members of the newly organized Girl Scout Troop 434 sponsored by the Torrance Terrace Garden Club. Leader of the group is Mrs. Peggy Norris. Co-leaders are Mrs. Eileen Dronyk and Mrs. Barbara Baker.

Mrs. Shasta Underwood is chairman, Joe Dronyk, secretary; William Ladd, treasurer; Mrs. Lavena Chavez, telephone; Mrs. Alma Ladd, activity; Mrs. Norma Mahis, cookie, and Mrs. Jean Nortcutt, council representative.

The girls are helping with the final plans for entries in the show.

Adding proportionately to the display of hobbies to be seen at the show are the hobbies to be displayed by the patients in the T. B. ward at Harbor General Hospital. Approximately 25 individual entries are anticipated from this group.

Crafts are a part of the occupational therapy program which is medically prescribed to aid the recovery of the patients.

All crafts which go outside the hospital for display are decontaminated for the safety of the viewers. The patients themselves do a great deal of work in the functioning of the department which helps keep interest alive for all who participate.

Emil Settlege, O.T.R., is in charge of the T.B. Service, Occupational Therapy Dept. at Harbor General and it is with his assistance and volunteers help that the patients will be displaying their hand work at the Hobby, Art, and Flower Show.

The show will be open to the public from 6 to 9 p.m. on Friday, May 16, from 12 noon to 9 p.m. on Saturday and 12 noon to 9 p.m. on Sunday. All exhibits must be in place by noon Friday, May 16. Judging will begin promptly at 1 p.m. on Friday.
